

For Immediate Release

For more information
Rebecca Doll 830-385-3689

June 3, 2008

“Community Invited to Lavender Festival Fine Art Show”

Friday the 13th will be a very lucky day for a select group of artists featured in the Lavender Festival Fine Art Show presented by Uptown Blanco Art Center. The show will feature renowned Hill Country artists as well as the art work of our creative community from children to elders. All are cordially invited to a reception on Opening Night, June 13th.

“I am amazed by the talent that is drawn to this area”, said Rebecca Doll, Director of Uptown Blanco Art Center. She added “We have been blessed with Masters right here in our community and our students have embraced their lessons with liveliness and energy. We look forward to demonstrating the results of their creative work.” The Uptown Blanco Art Center has become one of the components that focus the arts in the Hill Country.

Opening Night is June 13th and will begin at 5:00pm and wrap up around 8:00pm. Refreshments will be served by Uptown Blanco Restaurant and a cash bar will offer beer and wine. The free show will be located on the west side of the Square in Blanco, Texas at 317 Main Street. Guests may enter from 4th Street. Local galleries in Blanco and Johnson City will be open for viewing fine art immediately following the Lavender Festival Fine Art Show Opening.

Guests may also sign up for art instruction to begin Monday, June 16th. The course catalogue includes beading, drawing, painting, photography, ceramics, creative writing, song writing, poetry, stained glass, collage, sculpture and fiber art like macramé, batik, and paper making; details will be available at the opening. For more information call the Uptown Blanco Art Center 830-833-2514 or view www.uptownblanco.com/art_center.